A VERY WARM
WELCOME
TO OUR NEW
PARISH PRIEST,
FR ADRIAN HOWELL SJ.

The wonderful thing about the kind of love that Jesus wants of us, is that it is a love modelled on his kind of love. He showed his love for people in so many wonderful ways – in kindness, compassion, generosity, patience, perseverance, endurance, faithfulness and forgiveness. There was no limit to what his love would give or where it would go. The love which imitates the love of Jesus for others is therefore a practical, down-to-earth kind of love. It's a kindness and compassion kind of love, a self-forgetting kind of love. It's a self-sacrificing kind of love even to the point, as shown by so many brave soldiers in two World Wars, of giving up their own lives so that others might be free – free to be good, kind, unselfish, generous and loving persons too.

It's our love for others that keeps the great love of Jesus for people alive in our world today. An American journalist, watching Mother Teresa caring for a man with gangrene, remarked to her: 'I wouldn't do that for a million dollars.' Mother Teresa replied: 'Neither would I do it for that amount, but I do it for love of God.' True love is the opposite of selfishness. Selfishness confines us, keeps us shut in. It builds barriers, even walls, between us and others. What frees us is caring about others and caring for others, being friends, being sisters and brothers, being good neighbours. In short, it's love alone that frees us from the cage of selfishness. A doctor, who has shared some of the deepest moments in the lives of many patients, says that people facing death don't think about the degrees they've earned, the positions they've held, or how much wealth they've amassed. What really matters at the end is whom you have loved and who has loved you.

Love always demands the best from us, and brings out the best in us. Being loved gives us a surprising energy and courage. Love makes us fruitful, productive, strong and constant in doing good..... To love is to heal, both those who receive it and those who give it. To refuse to love is to die. To decide to love is to live. But love is a choice, not a feeling, and when we choose to be loving, caring, healing, helping, and forgiving persons, we experience well-being, contentment and happiness. Freedom from selfishness and freedom to love and care for others, surely that's what life is all about! There's really no other way. So Jesus insists, strongly insists: 'Love one another, as I have loved you.'

ALERT: ILLICIT MASSES IN BOURNEMOUTH AREA You may have seen an advert in the local press offering 'Traditional Latin Mass' in private houses. Please be aware that these are not sanctioned by the Bishop and the priest has no permission to operate in this diocese. At present, we have also been unable to verify that the priest has been validly ordained, although we know that he has not been through the diocesan vetting process regarding Safeguarding. The Form of Mass used is that offered pre-1950, not the 1962 Form that Pope Benedict sanctioned for use. They are not to be confused with the legitimate EF (Tridentine) Form Masses presently being offered at Our Lady immaculate Church, Westbourne and Sacred Heart Church, Bournemouth. You are urged to have nothing to do with the other Masses unless it can be validly shown that the priest is ordained and has complied with Diocesan processes.
