Second Sunday of Lent Year B 28th February 2021

"On the second Sunday of Lent, in the Gospel, we have the account of the three apostles witnessing a glimpse of the glory of that which is Jesus the Son of God (Mark 9: 2-10) It is wonderful experience for them. So much so, that Peter exclaimed "Lord is good for us to be here". And it is good for us to be here because we also get a glimpse of our own future, of our own glory, for we are children of God. It is good to remind us that we are called to be whole people, Holy people. In Lent, we are reminding ourselves of God's closeness to us. We are reminding ourselves that coming close to God's love in Jesus Christ, means that we wish to be transformed by God's love for us.

Today's readings remind us of God's closeness to us.

The First Reading (Genesis 22: 1-2, 9-13, 15-18) shows Abraham's complete obedience to God.

The Second Reading (Roman 8: 31-34) St Paul reminds us that God is on our side, therefore we are able to face the challenges that confront us.

Gospel (Mark 9: 2-10) A glimpse of the Glory of God shown in Jesus Christ.

Jesus commands them to tell nobody what has happened until after the Son of Man is risen from the dead. We, the readers of Mark's Gospel, are seeing the story of the Transfiguration in the light of the Cross and Resurrection. We know that without the Cross there would be no Resurrection. It is only after Jesus is seen risen from the dead, that the apostles understood the significance of what they witnessed. The glorious appearance of Jesus only makes sense in the light of Mount Golgotha. On the Cross, Jesus shares our pain and suffering. As followers of Christ we are called to follow Christ on the road to Calvary and then we experience the glory of Christ the risen Jesus. We go from Golgotha to Tabor. We will see God as he really is."

Keep safe. Prayers and blessings, Fr Adrian

THE HOLY FATHER has just issued his Message for Lent for 2021. In this Message, under the title, "Behold we are going up to Jerusalem", Pope Francis gathers and arranges the lessons of the passion, crucifixion and resurrection of Jesus into a triad of theological virtues: faith, hope and charity, and a triad of Lenten exercises: self-impoverishment (as in fasting and abstinence), prayer and charity/almsgiving. These two triads are woven together into forming the Pope's message this year; and, as you can see, they are virtues and exercises which Jesus himself lived and handed on to his followers to be lived also: to make them more Christ-like! With his Lenten message, Pope Francis recommends the same virtues and exercises, which Jesus taught his disciples, to us for our Lenten journey to the feast of the resurrection of Jesus at Easter 2021. "LORD, GIVE ME THE GRACE FOR TRANSFORMATION." The word transfiguration means a change in form or appearance. Biologists call it metamorphosis (derived from the Greek word metamorphoomai used in Matthew's Gospel), to describe the change that occurs when a caterpillar becomes a butterfly. As children we might have curiously watched the process of the caterpillar turning into a chrysalis and then bursting into a beautiful Monarch butterfly.

Fr. Anthony De Mello tells the story of such a metamorphosis in the prayer life of an old man. "I was a revolutionary when I was young and all my prayer to God was: 'Lord, give me the grace to change the world.' As I approached middle age and realized that half of my life was gone without changing a single soul, I changed my prayer to: 'Lord, give me the grace to change all those who come in contact with me; just my family and friends and I shall be satisfied.' Now that I am old and my days are numbered, I have begun to see how foolish I have been. My one prayer now is: 'Lord, give me the grace to change myself.' If I had prayed for this right from the start, I should not have wasted my life." (<http://stjohngrandbay.org/>) (Fr. Antony Kadavil - Vatican News)
