25th SUNDAY of Year B 19th September 2021

"First reading: (Wisdom 2: 12, 17-20) Those who are just will suffer for their virtuous life, because their blameless life is a reproach to the godless.

Second reading: (James 3: 16-4:3) Jealousy, ambition and self seeking lead to disharmony and fighting. Gentleness, reasonableness and mercy lead to peace.

Gospel (Mark 9: 30-37) Jesus tells his apostles that he will suffer bitter humiliation and death and says true greatness shows itself in humble service.

Jesus reminds us that leadership in His Church must be based on service. He put a little child in front of them to illustrate that point. We must learn to welcome and serve and love the least as well as the great. Christ himself, of course, remains our perfect role model who put his trust in God, His Father, and so served us with patience and gentleness." Fr Adrian.

St Vincent de Paul Society
Engage and Help
Turning Concern into Action

SVP. SEPTEMBER AWARENESS MONTH. This is the time of year when St Vincent de Paul Society finds itself being increasingly asked for help and difficulties increasing for the lonely and those facing tough circumstances. Thank you to all who have generously helped SVP during this pandemic. That help has been essential to meet the needs which have had to be faced. People are lonely, need a friend, are hungry and struggling to make ends meet.

That work will continue and continuing help will always be welcome. To those who might be thinking of asking for someone to visit, please understand that it is now a requirement that visits are always undertaken by two persons in order to safeguard those visiting and the wellbeing and interests of the person being visited. JESUIT REFUGEE SERVICES It has been a dramatic month as we see some incredible and distressing events taking place across the world from government collapses to natural disasters, the news has been a tough watch of late. We continue to pray for all those affected. Events in Afghanistan have left all of us moved and work has begun to welcome those who have already arrived here in the UK. Local authorities and charities have been working to ensure initial basic needs are met but there will be much work ahead to settle these refugees. We have called on the UK to welcome more people and are concerned what might happen to those who haven't yet arrived in the UK and may have to take dangerous journeys to get to safety. You can read about our response here: <https://www.jrsuk.net/news/the-uk-government-must-protect-afghans-seeking-sanctuary/> Next Sunday marks 'World Day of Migrants and Refugees'.
