25th Sunday of Year C - 18th September 2022

NEW BEGINNING "Last Monday, as he was about to leave, Father Adrian said to me: "I hope that you are as happy in this parish as I have been." I am really glad to be here, and as I take up my appointment as Parish Priest, I look forward to meeting and getting to know you.

Over recent years, in which we faced a pandemic and its consequences, a number of activities in parishes and elsewhere had to be stopped or curtailed. But we look forward with a confidence founded in faith, building on what has gone before. Together we grow and together we will work out what needs to be brought back and what new things we should try as disciples and followers of Jesus Christ. " Fr John

A VERY WARM WELCOME to Monsignor John Nelson, as our new Parish Priest. We offer our prayers and support to him.

GOODBYE & THANKS Fr Adrian wanted to say thank you again for all the kind wishes, gifts, cards and prayers. He has now gone on a well deserved break before heading to Preston.

MESSAGE FROM THE BISHOP ON THE DEATH OF QUEEN ELIZABETH

It is with deep sorrow and grief that Bishop Philip Egan learnt of the death of Queen Elizabeth II. Bishop Egan said: "A woman of faith, service, and duty: We remember Queen Elizabeth II in our prayers and offer up thanks to God for a woman who served the people of our kingdom tirelessly for over seventy years. We pray for the repose of her soul & that the Father receive her into His Eternal Kingdom. Our prayers & thoughts are with the royal family at this sad time"

In her official role as 'Defender of the Faith and Supreme Governor of the Church of England', the Queen, through her words and actions, always showed herself to be a woman of a deep Christian faith. Throughout her reign Queen Elizabeth II also ensured a relationship of mutual respect between the Church of England and the Catholic Church.

Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II was an extraordinary woman who will not be forgotten by her people.
May she rest in peace."

THE QUEEN RIP

At masses this weekend there will be special prayers for the Queen in honour the life of Queen Elizabeth II, before she is laid to rest.

Please take a free prayer card from Bishop's Conference of England & Wales.
